OF PROGRESS

The year 1952-1953 has been one of development and progress for the University of Louisville. The symbol of this growth is the new million dollar Natural Science Building which will be officially dedicated in the fall of 1953. A four million dollar bond issue approved by the citizens of Louisville in November of 1952 assures a continuance of this development program.

But physical expansion is not the only facet of growth in the University. The introduction of new courses, the opening of new schools, the appointment of new professors, and the increased emphasis on the University's role in community, national, and international affairs also evidence its multisided development.

It is the hope of the staff of the 1953 Thoroughbred that this year book has, to some extent, captured the spirit of this year of progress, and, further, that it will serve as a tangible reminder of the many happy, stimulating, and enjoyable moments that engender love and pride in one's Alma Mater.

Dedication

President's Home, 2230 Douglass Boulevard

In a way of tribute for his two years of inestimable service to the University, the staff of the 1953 Thoroughbred dedicates this yearbook to Dr. Philip Davidson, President of the University of Louisville. He is a man of many talents and responsibilities each of which he fulfills equally in the highest, most admirable manner: a gentleman, a husband, a father, a scholar, a teacher, a philosopher, a leader, a friend. His courage and vision stand as a guiding force to our university of tomorrow.

But such a tribute would be only partial if it did not recognize also his lovely wife whose southern charm and warm friendliness make her a fitting mate for our beloved President.

For their whole-hearted support and sincere interest, we thank them.

Administration

The Board of Trustees: Seated left to right—Francis Hopper, School of Music Faculty; Morton Walker, Assistant to the President, Miss Adele Brandeis, Rogers C. B. Morton, Philip G. Davidson, Wilson W. Wyatt, Eli H. Brown III, Robert T. Burke, Lee P. Miller, Edward J. Miller, Miss Eleanor Turner, Secretary to the President.

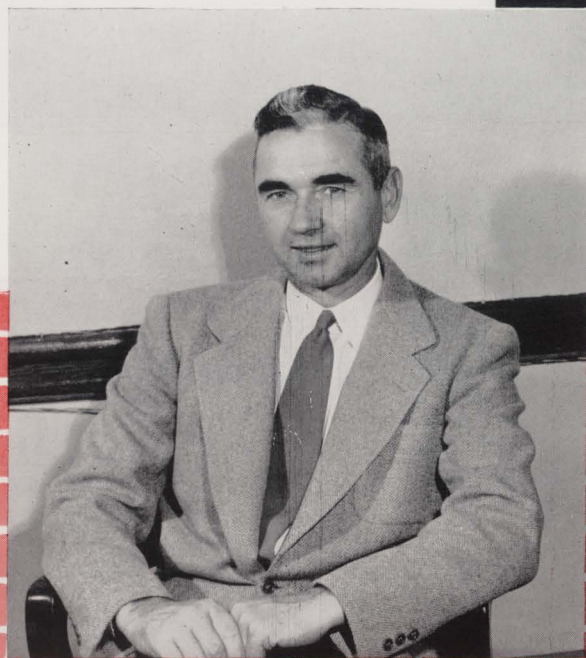

Dr. Hilda Threlkeld has been Dean of Women at the University since 1931. During that time her understanding, encouragement, and enthusiasm have endeared her to many. She received her A.B. from Transylvania College, M.A. from the University of Kentucky, Ph.D. from Columbia and an L.L.D. from Transylvania. Membership in university and civic organizations include: President and Treasurer, National Association of Deans of Women, President and Vice-President, Council of Guidance and Personnel Associations, President, Kentucky Division, American Association of University Women, President, Kentucky Association of Deans of Women, President, Mason County Women's Club, State Board, Kentucky Committee, National Board, Y.W.C.A., Sigma Xi, Phi Kappa Phi, Kappa Delta Pi, Mortar Board, Chi Omega.

Secretary to the Deans of Men and Women is Mrs. George Morrison, known to all as "Millie". Her personal interest and friendly smile make her office a frequent gathering spot for students, and her amazing ability to answer all questions regarding the University has earned her the fitting title of "Omniscient Millicent".

Dave Lawrence, Dean of Men, is a campus favorite of both men and women students. An active supporter of all campus events, Dean Lawrence takes a genuine interest in every men's organization and student problems. He received his A.B. and M.A. degrees from the University of Kentucky where he gained honorable mention on the All American Basketball team. During World War II, he served in the Navy. He is at present an active member in: Lions Club, Omicron Delta Kappa, National P. E. Association, State P. E. Association and National Association of Student Personnel Administrators.

Glimpses of . .

The challenge of charting a course for the coming year is met by faculty and student leaders at the annual Leadership Camp.

Freshman Orientation acquaints newcomers with members of the teaching staff and the various aspects of college life.

Thus is begun another school year—

Never to be forgotten is the tumult of registration with its long lines and never-ending white cards.

.. Campus Life

Friday noon band concerts attract music lovers.

Excitement is provided by presidential election campaigning.

Sorority and fraternity rush adds spice but . . .

Campus

There's the perplexing problem of deciding.

Some play. Others just watch and freeze.

Life

Perhaps the busiest hour on the campus is the noon hour when such events as the Student Council elections furnish a colorful array of posters, slogans, and campaign promises.

Glimpses of Campus Life

On every university campus there are favorite scenes that evoke memories long after college days are over. Who, for instance, will forget Gardiner Hall with its long, narrow halls or the weighty problems that were solved out at the fountain between classes?

Howdy Walk is the unofficial crossroads for all students . . . the stage for cookie sales, political campaigns, or friendly chats. In the afternoon when classes are over and the Snack Bar is closed, the walk appears quite deserted without its usual lively parade.

The crowded parking lots are familiar sights to all, especially those who drive. This year has seen marked improvement in this situation with the construction of more adequate parking space.

Campus Life

Campus Life

Holiday and week-end dances furnish many a happy and memorable moment. The frothy evening dresses, stiff tux collars, crowded dance floors, limp corsages, and crazy favors are just a few of the impressions retained of these social events.

But too often it's like this.

There's no end of excitement furnished by football and basketball games, especially in those last few moments when the score is close.

The party after the game adds a fitting climax to the evening. While dancing or nibbling refreshments, the students have a chance to rehash the game.

The sparkling basketball players were (above) Professors Bowman, Shoemaker, Lawrence, Threlkeld, Terr, Wood, Kesselman, of the "Trembling Teachers", and (below) the "Fearless Faculty" composed of Professors Parrish, Heldman, Arnold, Taylor, Blackwell, Back, Smith, Stevenson.

When Dr. Philip Davidson came to U. of L. in 1951, he said that he would like to have developed among the members of the University "a university family" atmosphere. The realization of this wish must, to a large extent, be accredited to the willing participation of the faculty in many student sponsored activities.

An annual campus event is the Faculty Basketball Game sponsored by the Women's League. The 1952 clash saw the "Trembling Teachers" triumph over the "Fearless Faculty" 16-12.

And no one can forget the howling laughter and enthusiastic applause that greeted the "Faculty Four" the night of the Barbershop and Beauty Shop Quartet Contest.

Chaperoning dances, attending parties, and rooting at sports events are just a few of the other contributions made by the Faculty to our campus family life.

Faculty Favorites

Dean and Mrs. Lawrence join the fun in a square dance at Leadership Camp.

U-L BOND ISSUE PASSES

On November 12, 1952, the citizens of Louisville were asked to vote on a Bond issue which would give the University of Louisville four million dollars. The money derived would be spent for a new library, expansion of facilities for the Division of Adult Education, and renovation and rehabilitation of the present buildings on campus.

The bonds were passed by 69.94% of the voters and thus was assured a future of development and progress for the University.

Connie Darms, student campaigner, turns on her coed charm to gain a housewife vote.

A vigorous campaign was carried on by all members and friends of the University. Alumni, administration, faculty, and students combined efforts to acquaint the voters with the University's needs.

The student campaign was organized similar to a political party set-up with Mrs. Hortense Young, Fontaine Kremer, and Peggy Moll acting as the co-chairmen. The city was divided into ward and precinct districts and a student placed in charge of each. Classes were dismissed for a full day preceding the election in order that a personal house to house contact might be made. On election day each poll was manned by a student distributing campaign literature. Every person working in the drive felt highly rewarded by the newspaper headlines announcing the passage of the bonds.

Fryberger Sing

The annual Fryberger Sing is one of the most picturesque events of the year. The competing groups, garbed in multicolored costumes, render their musical best in an effort to win the coveted trophies.

Barbershop and Beauty Shop Quartets

Barbershop and Beauty Shop Quartet Contest provides another evening of entertainment and musical competition.

All-University Day

Along with spring comes All-University Day with its diversified booths and games providing amusement and fun for students of all Colleges of the University.

During the Sigma Kappa street dance, which brings the big day to an end, announcement is made of the winners of the Alpha Phi Omega contest for Lena, the Hyena, and the Ugly Man. The 1952 winners are Mildred Carter, Kappa Delta, and Andy Offutt, Pi Kappa Phi.

The historic and unique Playhouse, which originally was a chapel, is widely known for its outstanding seasonal dramatic presentations.

Little Theatre

The enthusiasm with which Boyd Martin directs the Little Theatre Company can be attributed to his years of experience and natural enjoyment of theatrical work.

Affectionately regarded by his students, "Pop" has directed many well known productions which have received wide acclaim. His untiring effort has won for the Little Theatre a great deal of merited praise and prestige.

Campus Life

Convocations not only bring outstanding speakers from all over the world to our University Campus but also provide opportunity for student performances.

(top) Archibald MacLeish, nationally known poet and statesman, was one of the eminent campus visitors.

(bottom) The University of Louisville chorus under the direction of Mr. George Perle sings the festive songs of the Christmas season.

For the first time, the University of Louisville has acquired a television show of its own. The half-hour programs on Monday nights present matters of importance or interest to the people of Louisville. An operetta is presented by the School of Music every other week.

Annual Boatride

A favorite event of the school year is the annual boatride on the Ohio River. This cruise, sponsored by the Arts and Sciences Student Council, provides opportunity for students of all schools to get together for a friendly chat, dancing, or idle river gazing.

(top, left) The calliope proves an object of interest to a number of onlookers.

BON VOYAGE!

Our Foreign Students

Through the International Center, under the direction of Dr. George Brodschi, the University participates in an active foreign student exchange program. This year thirty-four foreign students from the following countries enrolled at U. of L.: Argentina, Austria, Bolivia, Brazil, Ceylon, China, Columbia, France, Germany, Greece, Hawaii, India, Iraq, Japan, Kingdom of Jordan, Korea, Lebanon, Nigeria, Norway, Okinawa, Peru, Philippines, and Puerto Rico.

Not only do the students take an active participation in the social and academic life of the University but they also learn much about American government and domestic life through their many contacts with the community, both through speaking engagements and visiting of families.

The Parade which precedes the Homecoming game is a lively and colorful affair. Heralded by the band, each float is proudly exhibited by its creators.

Homecoming

The foremost event of the year is Homecoming when an abundance of time, money, and energy is expended by members of various organizations in an attempt to create the most picturesque and effective float. Even though a trophy may not be won, all effort is well compensated by the merriment of the occasion.

Sigma Kappa places first with "We'll Surprise 'Em."

Pi Beta Phi, second, promises to "Suds 'Em Under."

Air Force Corps of Sponsors

For the purpose of fostering interest in the Air Force ROTC Wing of Cadets, an organization of coeds known as the Corps of Sponsors was formed. The Corps gives assistance and support to all military and social functions of the Air Force Unit.

This group was formed in November of 1952. The charter members of the corps were: Tinker Eberhart, Margaret Hamilton, Doris Russell, Marjorie Reichenbach, Carol Sharpe, Polly Custis, Peggy Fusner, Myrna Montgomery, Martha Eller, Barbara Duerr, Sue Ellen Broadus, Carol Cordes, Helen Mohlenkamp, Ann Currens, Charlotte Bewley, and Barbara Knadler. Later the corps elected to membership Hilda Gay Mayberry to serve with the Drum and Bugle Corps and Drill Team.

Due to several resignations the corps had to hold an election for new Sponsors in March and the following girls were elected to membership by the corps of Cadets: Bebe Bailey, Nadyne Ryle, Delwin Kellerman, and Betty Custis.

Officers of the corps are as follows: Marjorie Reichenbach, President; Carol Sharpe, Vice-President; Polly Custis, Secretary; Peggy Fusner, Treasurer; Martha Eller, Public Relations Officer; and Myrna Montgomery, Personnel Officer.

Omicron Delta Kappa

Omicron Delta Kappa was the outgrowth of a men's honorary fraternity founded at Washington and Lee University in 1914. The Beta Epsilon Circle was founded in the Spring of 1943. Campus leaders are chosen for membership on the basis of character and achievement as students, faculty, and citizens.

The officers are Harris Berman, Vice President, and Judy Shelton, President. Standing, Nancy Grossman, Treasurer; Horace Harding, Assistant Secretary; Clara Jo Smith, Secretary.

The International Relations Club has for its purpose the furthering of study and interest in international affairs and the encouragement of greater understanding among peoples all over the world.

IRC's active membership boasts the interest and participation of students from many lands who are studying at the University of Louisville. Club members take part in an integrated study and social program, which helps them to increase their knowledge of other countries and also provides them with a better opportunity to meet and know the people of these countries.

The activities of the group include a wide variety of speakers and films at the regular Wednesday noon meetings and a schedule of parties and foreign dinners.

Interest in IRC is furthered by weekly educational programs, which always attract the student body.

Nursing School

In 1886, The Louisville Training School was established and became one of the oldest nursing schools in Kentucky. From this early beginning there gradually developed through the years the Louisville General Hospital School of Nursing, a division of the Louisville and Jefferson County Board of Health. In 1952, through mutual agreement with the University, the University of Louisville School of Nursing came into being. As one of the newest members of the University, Nursing School offers one more outstanding vocation for a college girl. The curriculum offers a four-year course with a B.S. degree in Nursing. The major portion of the freshman year is in the College of Arts and Sciences, other classes being held at the Louisville General Hospital. After the freshman year all classes are at the Hospital and clinical experience is obtained from community agencies.

The first freshman class has seven girls, most of whom live in the Nursing Dormitory at General Hospital. In the role of Dean is Anne D. Taylor, who has worked hard to obtain this new Nursing School, and through her endeavors has established a feeling of pride in this school, the baby of the "University Family."

In nursing class these girls are introduced to scientific principles of nursing and how to apply them to the patient.

Southern Police Institute

The Southern Police Institute, established on Belknap Campus in late 1950, offers advanced training in Police Science and Criminology to higher ranking police officers in the southern part of the United States. The purpose of the Institute is to furnish law enforcement officers a course of study which will prepare them to perform their functions more efficiently.

Students are selected by application, with preference given to personnel in commanding, supervisory, and administrative positions. The Institute schedules three terms of twelve weeks duration, starting each year in January, April, and September. Director of the Southern Police Institute is David A. McCandless; Assistant Director is Rolland L. Soule; Secretary is Dorothy P. Clore.

Arts and Sciences Company

Naval Reserve Officers

Under the command of Captain E. R. Hannon, Professor of Naval Science and Tactics, the NROTC unit prepares young men for commissions as Ensigns in the regular Navy or Naval Reserve, or as Second Lieutenants in the Marine Corps. One of the highlights of Navy life is the opportunity to participate in annual summer cruises.

Members of the NROTC are selected on a basis of an annual nation-wide aptitude test administered by the Naval Examination Board. Standards of physical condition are also high.

Dayton's Bobby Reckers picks up yardage against Louisville as four Cardinals, led by Jim Hollowell (60), move up in pursuit.

The Cardinal machine opened the 1952 season with the same burst of enthusiasm which allowed them to run up a four game winning streak last year and continued to take decided victories in the next two games. But, then, as the schedule got tougher, injury broke the Cardinal winning streak.

However, Louisville fought hard all through the season, and even with the 3-5 final tally, U. of L. proved its worth as it built towards and won the Homecoming to get back in the winner's circle.

Offensively, Dave Rivenbark, the "catchem kid" shone through in many a dark situation with those snags and extra points. Great offensive ability was shown in the powerful line by Kenny Anderson, Leroy Holben, Gene Massaro, and Duke Kovanda.

For the defense Dave Rivenbark, Joe Nicoletti, Jack Valvo, Les Rectin, Jim Fults were always in there pitching and Harlan Silliman and Roy Pugh inevitably came through in the pinches.

So even with a 3-5 record the Cards through fight and spirit gained recognition as a team on the way up. They practiced hard, worked consistently and managed to make a real showing when the going got tough.

Even in defeat the name of Johnny Unitas had resounded through the crowd, and many teams were stifled by "the kid from Pittsburg". His superb quarterbacking and great passing won him praise from every team we played, for as one newspaper put it "'Unitas We Stand, Divided We Fall' must be U. of L.'s motto."

Big Jim Williams again showed his ability in "barrel rolling" his opponents with powerful offensive fullbacking. Otto Knop performed like a real champion over the ball, but he was lost from the lineup after injury in the Eastern game. The loss of Williams and Knop, along with many other graduates will hurt U. of L. considerably.

Coaches

Head Coach and chief developer of the University's tricky offense is Mr. Frank Camp. Just finishing his seventh year as the top man in Louisville football circles, Camp did wonders this last year with a squad that suffered every bit of injury-bad-luck that could come to one team. Highlight of the season for Louisville and for Coach Camp was the resounding 41 to 14 conquest of Florida State. In this ball game a Camp-coached-team showed what it could do at full physical strength; that is, pass and run with a variety of tricky offenses and defensively turn the opponent back when the chips were down.

1952 Football Season

Jim Williams is stopped cold by an Eastern stone wall as he fails to score against Eastern Kentucky.

FLORIDA STATE

Tallahassee, Florida, October 4

Johnny Unitas paced an inspired team to a 41-14 win over the Florida State Seminoles. The Pittsburg pitcher completed 16 out of 22 passes for 3 T.D.'s and Louisville's 6th straight win.

Running by Jim Williams, Wyman Townsel, and Jim Dole gave Louisville a net total of 257 yards gained rushing.

Louisville took advantage of two Seminole fumbles to get a 27-7 lead and never had to worry again.

Rivenbark played a great offensive game and added to his prestige with the extra points.

Louisville's Jack Valvo (63) and Joe Nicoletti (26) haul down Eastern's Fred Winscher after the Easterner caught a pass.

DAYTON

Louisville, October 11

Without the services of Big Jim Williams the Cardinals lost their first game in seven tries. The 20-0 score was no yard stick of the real game though, as the Cardinals turned in many a great play. Dayton outweighed U. of L. by 15 pounds a man.

Dayton exhibited outstanding playing from the powerful ground game of Bobby Recher and Jimmy Akau. Louisville's Roy Pugh turned in a fine defensive performance, but it seemed to be the lack of offensive ability that stopped the Cards.

XAVIER

Cincinnati, Ohio, October 18

Johnny Unitas again showed superior ability in passing for the Cards, but the Redbirds lost to an inspired Musketeer eleven seeking their first win of the season after four losses.

Although U. of L. lost 27-13, Xavier only scored 13 first downs to Louisville's 12. The game was never sure for Xavier until the end as Unitas and Dave Rivenbark, through a flurry of aeriels, sparked a drive that wouldn't quit.

Defensively, the Cards shone strongly for the first quarter, but in the end the Musketeers proved too tough.

CHATTANOOGA

Chattanooga, Tennessee, October 31

The Louisville eleven had their worst game of the year against the giant killers from Chattanooga. The Moccasins from Tennessee held a long time jinx on the Cards with a 47-14 victory. Last time the schools met, in 1928, Chattanooga won 70-0.

Unitas and Williams appeared to be off, but the trouble was mainly a weakened U. of L. defense which wouldn't hold against the powerful Chattanooga team. Otto Knop, along with Bob Bender and Les Rechlin, showed well in the line.

Louisville gained more ground than U. C. in the passing department.

MEMPHIS STATE

Memphis, Tennessee, November 8

Louisville lost another one away from home to the Tigers of Memphis State by a score of 29-25.

It was a game that changed hands every quarter and ended with a very close margin.

This was the fourth straight defeat for the Cardinals who lost Sophomore Johnny Unitas by an injury to his right arm.

Jim "Boom, Boom" Williams and "the kid from Pittsburgh" both turned in fine displays of running and passing. Jim was hard to stop and his running along with a 34 yard sprint by Wyman Townsel helped keep the score close.

Two good drives from the Cardinals kept the team in the game.

EASTERN STATE

Louisville, November 15

The first victory smile in 5 games came to the Louisville team in their homecoming game against Eastern State Teachers College.

But the Eastern Maroons weren't easily beaten as they held on until the end and never let U. of L. breathe easily.

The Cards got a total of 463 yards offensively without the aid of Johnny Unitas. Fullback Jim Williams was lost through injury in the second half.

Although Eastern threatened often, Louisville always changed the situation in time.

Wyman Townsel turned in a superior performance as did Ken Anderson.

MISSISSIPPI SOUTHERN

Jackson, Mississippi, November 22

Louisville's chance for a final victory was quickly broken by the bowl bound southerners from Mississippi who lost only to Alabama as they hurdled the injury-riddled Cardinals with a 55-26 win.

Actually Louisville had little chance to battle as their defense gave in frequently.

Olmstead, Pugh, and Rivenbark did come through with good games. Rivenbark showed splendidly both offensively and defensively.

(top) An Eastern pass was good for yardage. 85 is Louisville's Roy Pugh.

(below) Dave Rivenbark rams into an Eastern end after the Maroon snags a pass against the Cards at Parkway Field.

Basketball

The basketball season of 1952-1953 is one that Louisville players, coaches, and fans will long remember. Paradoxically, at the beginning of the year it promised to be "the year to forget", because, except for Chuck Noble, the starters of the 1951-1952 squad had all graduated. Furthermore, physical disability threatened to keep veteran Chet Beam and promising Vladimir Gastevich from much active play, while John Prudhoe, the 6' 10" giant, was definitely "benched" because of a broken neck.

The Cardinals received their first bit of good luck when sophomore Gastevich was okayed by doctors to play provided he wore a protective bandage. With this bit of good news to urge them on, Coach Peck Hickman's fuzzy cheeked lads easily pushed aside what had promised to be two tough old Kentucky rivals: Kentucky Wesleyan, 89 to 70, and Morehead, 65 to 47.

At this point the Cardinals got another boost, for Beam was given the green light by medical authorities to play four minutes a quarter. The night Beam rejoined the squad Louisville met its first big test, the Big Ten Conference's rugged Purdue Boilermakers. When the final whistle sounded and Louisville, with the help of some great clutch shooting by Beam, had vanquished Purdue 89 to 85, some people began to admit the Cards might have a good year after all.

But the real test was coming: the tough Eastern swing which had Louisville meeting Manhattan, Temple, and Seton Hall in the short period of five days. The Cards, led by Chuck Noble's 25 points, put up a magnificent fight before Manhattan emerged the victor in Madison Square Garden by a score of 65 to 63.

Then came what Louisville coaches Peck Hickman and John Dromo said was the tip-off to a successful season for the Cards. The game with Temple went down to the wire and was tied at the final whistle. Louisville had most of its starters on the bench with five fouls. But Louisville reserves forced Temple into a second overtime, and the Cardinals won 85 to 77 as a new star was born in a flurry of 23 points. The young man's name was Phil Rollins.

Seton Hall's champion cagers bounced Louisville two nights later 77-66 but the die had already been cast.

Back on the home Armory floor, Marquette's tough Hilltoppers fell 78 to 76 in what was practically a duplicate of the exciting conquest of Purdue.

Then down South in Florida for a holiday vacation and a superb testing ground for some of the underclassmen, the Cards added Miami 84 to 74, Tampa 76 to 63, and Stetson 83 to 81 to the Cardinal victory column.

Returning to "excitement canyon", also known as the Armory, Louisville won in its next game all the non-believers. In a spectacular contest, Louisville scrapping youngsters rallied to defeat powerful Dayton 70 to 63. In this spine-tingling tilt, Corky Cox, Vlad Gasteich, along with Beam, Noble, and Rollins, continued to prove in performance their hardwood greatness.

A loss to Eastern Kentucky at Richmond, 91 to 85, only seemed to whet the Cards eagerness for more opponents to vanquish. Returning for a three game stint

on the home floor, Louisville reserves like Billy Sullivan, Harry Hinton, Al Russak, Dick Keffer, Herb Harrah, and Bill Powell added their sparkling supporting play to the already amazing performance by the starting five. Paced in many cases by the above reserves, powerful Chicago Loyola was squashed with amazing simplicity 84 to 61, Georgetown was swamped 94 to 61, and Mississippi Southern fell 87 to 72.

Then Noble, Cox, Gastevich, and "Company" really went to work, whipping Bradley in Peoria in a wild offensive game 89 to 36, defeating Loyola 76 to 72 up in Chicago's Stadium, and dumping Xavier 72 to 69 back at the Armory. At Owensboro, the Cards manhandled Kentucky Wesleyan 95 to 74 as Chuck Noble broke Louisville's all time individual scoring mark. Chuck tallied 36 points to break a four-year old record of 32 held by Kenny Reeves, a former U. of L. star.

Continuing on the road, Louisville downed Marquette 86 to 83 in Milwaukee as Cox and Beam led the bucket busting barrage. Notre Dame encountered the Cards on a cold night to win 73 to 62, but the effervescent Cards bounced back to master Dayton, in Dayton, 69 to 63.

At this point Tournament fever hit the campus; however the Cards whipped Eastern 68 to 66 to get revenge for the early season loss, but then went on to a Cincinnati defeat as Xavier upset the Redbird applecart 80 to 74.

Louisville got the National Invitational Tournament bid and proceeded to finish the season in magnificent style. Bradley was beaten again, this time at the Armory 79 to 70, and then before a packed house at the Armory, Louisville knocked off the nation's number one team, Seton Hall, 73 to 67.

Unfortunately, a wild fight followed the Seton Hall game in which players and spectators were involved. A gesture of friendship by Louisville's Chet Beam was mistaken by Seton Hall's Harry Brooks, and when Brooks swung the first punch the following melee was so spectacular that its publicity even made a three page spread in Life magazine.

In the opening round of the N.I.T. in New York, Louisville played one of its best games of all time in the Garden to flatten Georgetown of Washington, D.C. 92 to 79, but in the quarter-finals Louisville went cold and suffered a 79 to 66 loss to fourth-seeded Manhattan.

Despite the N.I.T. loss, Louisville fans still shared similar feelings expressed by the sorority girls greeting the Cards upon this return from New York, i. e., "We still love Y'all", for it was truly a season of surprise, a season of greatness, and a season to remember.

Basketball Coaches

If any one man is responsible for placing the University of Louisville athletics in the National limelight, it must be said that Peck Hickman is that man. His success story runs eight years and this past season was probably his finest. Starting the year with what should have been an untested bunch of underclassmen, Hickman successfully juggled his lineup to such an extent that every boy's full potentiality and possibility for improvement was brought out. His success as a coach can simply be summed up in Louisville presence in one of the major tournaments every year since 1950.

The number two man of the University of Louisville basketball coaching staff, is dapper, likeable John Dromo. Dromo, whose accomplishments on and off the basketball court are enough to fill a book, lends his talents to Louisville as assistant basketball coach, chief recruiter of personnel, and head golf coach.

Another rebound fight against Morehead puts Louisville's Harry Hinton (21), Bill Sullivan (6), and Bill Kidd (20) in action.

Louisville's Alex Russak and Corky Cox (3) find themselves along with Wesleyan players hunting vainly for the ball that is just over their heads.

Baseball

The University baseball team of the spring of 1952 was one that possessed astounding power at the plate to win its ball games. Handicapped by an inexperienced pitching staff, Louisville based its strength on such proven performers as Johnny Reschar, Corky Cox, Jim Paterson, Jack Rose, Bill Newkirk, Bobby Brown, Joe Nicoletti, and Jim Hollowell to give the batting punch to win crucial games. Of the pitchers Al Wilding and Bob Lochmueller were the proven performers, while all who followed Coach Heldman's crew will never forget Jack Rose's strolls from center field to take the mound in relief.

School Songs

"U. of L. Alma Mater"

We thy loyal sons now stand to sing thy highest praise
With deepest rev'rence in our hearts for these our college days.
Thy honor true we all defend
'tis known we love thee well.
Our thoughts for years to come will be of thee our U. of L.

"On You Cardinals"

On you Cardinals beat your foe and win a victory.
Move along like "Fighting" Cardinals show your speed "March on" to win for U. of L.
Let's hit that line and make a score
then we'll go after more.
Keep your foe ever on the run
'till victory's won.

The Women's League

The Women's League sponsors events of interest to all women students on campus. The most note-worthy are the Career Day Panels, the faculty basketball game, the Marriage Clinic, visiting lecturers such as Martha Jane Brunson, the Valentine Dance, and the Annual Spring Honors Luncheon.

At the Honors Luncheon Norma Ridgway, right, was presented the Sigma Kappa Award for the "most outstanding senior woman" and Betty Lee Ashbury, left, was given the Mortar Board Citation as the "most outstanding freshman woman".

Woodcock Society

Delta Phi Alpha

Delta Upsilon Chapter of Delta Phi Alpha, the national Honorary German Fraternity, is very active in promoting interest in the German language and German culture. Pictured are: Front row, from left, Arnie Grever, Secretary, and Jack Bewley, President. In the back row are: Coleman Groves, Historian; Dr. Leonard Koester, Faculty Advisor; L. J. Klein, Treasurer. Not pictured is Frances Zopff, Vice President.

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club has a varied program of interest for all women students. Some of the outstanding features are: an Easter Egg Hunt for underprivileged children, a cake sale, and a style show. Officers of the club are: Martha McIntosh, President; Libby Bridgwater, Vice President; Jane Ann Dudgeon, Secretary; and Nell McCarley, Treasurer. Pictured here are: front row, left to right, Joann Breithel, Betty Lee Ashbury, Ann Ade, Donna Beere, Libby Bridgwater, Marilyn Ferguson. Back row: Freida Jackson, Alice Joplin, Jane Ann Dudgeon, Marilyn Camp, Mrs. Gladys Morris, Faculty Advisor.

Future Teachers of America

Dormitories

Robbins Hall, immediately opposite the campus on Shipp Street, houses approximately thirty girls. They have their own student government with Mary McAfee as president. Their housemother, Miss Boldrick, is dearly loved by all for her pleasing personality and her interest in each of her girls.

Leopold Hall, Otter Hall, and White Hall are the three men's dormitories on campus. Athletes, Navy and Air Force students, and students from foreign countries form the majority of the men students residing here.

In Memoriam

The sudden and untimely death of Dr. Ralph A. Loring, head of the Physics Department, College of Arts and Sciences, has left with the faculty, student body, and many friends a deep sense of loss.

The characteristics that will long be associated with the memory of Dr. Loring are his deep interest in the students as individuals and his unflinching stimulation to their scientific progress. He gave unstintingly of himself to assist in every way the true education of his students. This was manifested in many ways: in the numerous hours he spent in devising new ways of presenting material and new and more interesting experiments for laboratory work, and in putting students into positions such as laboratory assistants to give them a better understanding of the practical problems which might be met in later life.

Dr. Loring also contributed much to the scientific and cultural life of the University and the community. In addition to his work as head of the department, he served on many University committees and was always willing to spend his time in helping a colleague. During his eighteen years at the University, he served as Chairman of the Louisville Physical Society, the Kentucky Association of Physics Teachers, and many other organizations. He was active in establishing the Sigma Xi Club and the alumni chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. He was faculty advisor for fraternities, student councillor, and friend of the students outside of his classes. He presented learned papers at national, regional, and local society meetings. He served as a member of the Louisville Council of Engineering and Scientific Societies, and at the time of his death he was the Kentucky representative on the national council of the American Association of Physics Teachers.

For his scientific and cultural achievements and his kind and friendly manner, Dr. Ralph Loring will long be remembered by all whom he met and taught.

Medical Technology

The newest section of the Arts and Science School is the Medical Technology course. In the first class of Fall, 1952, the enrollment stands at eight, but is expected to increase rapidly in the next few years.

The curriculum of this department offers a certificate for three years of study and a Bachelor of Science upon completion of four years.

Med Tech classes are all held at the Medical School. The director of the Medical Technology group is Dr. A. J. Miller, Head of Pathology at General Hospital.

The Arts and Science Student Council is composed of twelve students elected by popular vote to serve for a year on the Council. Projects of the group include the Annual Spring Boatride, senior honor awards, and the mailing of CARDINALS to soldiers overseas.

Relaxing moments between classes, sorority and fraternity gab sessions, pep rally pantomines, week-end parties, and informal get-togethers with the faculty and administration make up a very vital and memorable part of college life.

School of Dentistry

The School of Dentistry was organized in 1886 as the Louisville College of Dentistry and was affiliated with Central University of Richmond, Kentucky. The school at the present time, is located at Brook and Broadway. In 1918, the School of Dentistry was reorganized as a school of the University of Louisville and is well-known throughout the nation for its selection of curriculum and the maintenance of its modern clinic and laboratories. It is fully accredited by the Council on Dental Education of the American Dental Association.

Division of Adult Education

The Division of Adult Education has made it possible for a student, by taking evening classes, to meet the requirements for the degree Associate in Arts and for most of the bachelors degrees offered by the College of Arts and Sciences. Through its varied program of study, D.A.E. also offers work leading to certificates in many fields of specialization. The enrollment for the spring semester, 1953, was 1,799, one of the largest Adult Education student bodies in the country.

Division of Adult Education

Dean William C. Huffman

Dr. Huffman has been associated with the D.A.E. and University of Louisville since Fall, 1947. He became Dean in February, 1953. His B.S. and M.A. degrees are from Ohio State University and he has a Ph.D. from Northwestern University.

In addition to his administrative duties, he is still actively engaged as an Associate Professor of Economics.

In the capacity of Dean, it is Dr. Huffman's ambition to fully serve the interests of all persons in Louisville and Jefferson County who are interested in Adult Education.

Louisville
School of Law

THE UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE SCHOOL OF LAW was organized in 1846 and is the second oldest law school in the South. The incorporation of the Jefferson School of Law and the introduction of evening classes are the recent outstanding advancements of Law School. The school has one of the best libraries in the South and is continuing to grow in position and prominence.

Dean Absalom Russell became the Dean of the School of Law in 1946. He has, however, been associated with the school since 1946. He is a graduate of Berea and Yale University Law School and was admitted to the Kentucky Bar in 1930. He has spent some years with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is noted especially in the field of law for his Revision Of the Kentucky Code.

The Briefing Service

Past Chairman, Claude Eddleman, gives Ed Post, new incumbent Chairman, some pointers, while Professor Dobie, Briefing Service Advisor, looks on.

THE BRIEFING SERVICE, founded in 1936, marks one of the outstanding achievements of the University of Louisville Law School. Louisville is the first school in the United States to adopt such a plan. Its functions are to render a research service to members of the Kentucky Bar whose libraries are inadequate to solve complicated legal problems, to give students a chance to familiarize themselves with pressing and everyday legal problems, and to foster a closer relationship with students and practicing members of the faculty.

The Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity, the largest legal fraternity in the United States, was founded in 1900. Today Delta Theta Phi has eighty-one active student senates, thirty-four active alumni senates, and a total membership of over 30,000.

The Henry Clay Senate, located at the University of Louisville, was installed in 1948 and at present has a membership of forty law students. Its members are active in Law School activities, participating in the Moot Court Club and serving on the various Student Bar Association committees. Regular monthly dinner meetings are held and prominent local judges and lawyers are invited as guest speakers.

The Louisville Alumni Senate was installed in 1951 and has a membership of twenty-five. Dean A. C. Russell is Dean of the Alumni Senate.

The object of the Fraternity is to unite congenial students of the law, to lead them to high scholarship, and to advance the interest of every college of law of which this fraternity shall be associated.

Student Bar Association

(Student Honorary Judges)
Ed Schroering, Justice;
Claude Eddleman, Chief Justice;
Ed Post, Justice.

The STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION, the student government of the School of Law, is patterned after the American Bar Association, and is designed to familiarize the Law Student with the functions of the Bar Association and provide a more effective and efficient form of student government.

It was the moving force behind the establishment of the Moot Court Club of the School of Law as well as the source of all the important activities at Law School.

Moot Court Club

*Court
in Session.*

OFFICERS

President ..... Joe Linton
Vice President ..... Ed Stone
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Ed Schroering

THE MOOT COURT CLUB was organized to give the Law Student practical experience in presenting a case to the court. In the past, the experience acquired has only extended to appellate work, that is, before judges; in 1953 it will include also work in front of juries.

Students attending Court when in session.

School of Medicine

THE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE, founded October 23, 1837, observes with pride the achievements of its alumni, its contributions to medical progress, and its record of community and national service.

The degree of Doctor of Medicine conferred by the University of Louisville is recognized by every State Board in the United States for both licensure examinations and reciprocity, and also for licensure examination by the National Examining Board and by the British Con-joint Board.

In Memorium

Alfred William Homberger

Professor Emeritus of the Department of Biochemistry of the University of Louisville School of Medicine.

Born in Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin, Dr. Homberger received his A.B. at U. of Wisconsin in 1905; M.S., U. of Illinois in 1908; Ph.D. at U. of Illinois in 1910 and came to U. of L. in 1918.

Dr. Homberger set up the Home Economics Department in 1922. After teaching Chemistry for the entire University for 24 years, he moved to the School of Medicine in 1942 to devote full time work to the Medical and Dental Schools.

Professor and Chairman of the Department of Biochemistry, he was made Professor Emeritus in 1951. Dr. Homberger retired in June 1952. He died on September 11, 1952.

Grey haired and gentle, beloved by all, he is deeply mourned by his many former students and friends.

John Walker Moore

John Walker Moore, Professor of Medicine, Dean of the School of Medicine from 1929 until 1949. He received his B.S. from Davidson College, and his M.D. from the University of Pennsylvania, and an Honorary D. Sc. from Davidson in 1941.

Dr. Moore entered the U. of L. School of Medicine in 1915 as an instructor in the Dept. of Pathology and Bacteriology. After a period of Army service, he returned as Professor of Research Medicine, in which he served until his appointment as Dean in 1929.

Dr. Moore was a member of Kappa Sigma, Phi Chi, an Honorary member of Phi Beta Kappa and Alpha Omega Alpha.

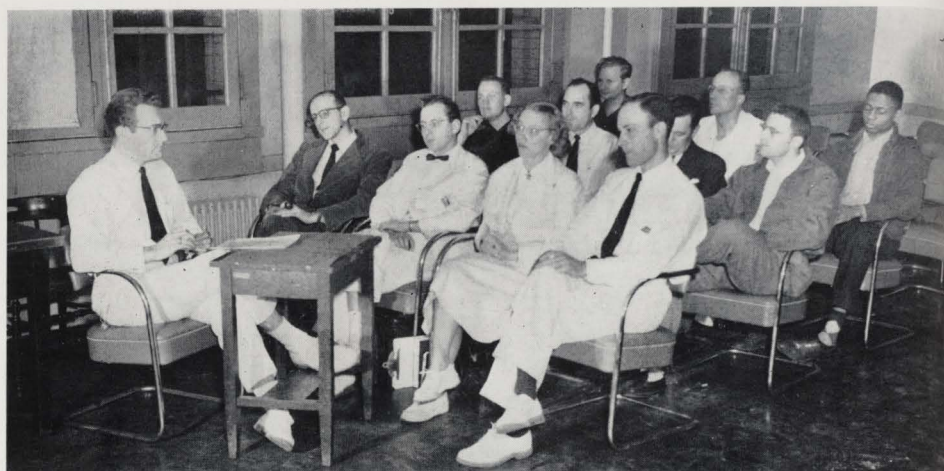

He was a great and understanding man and much admired by his numerous friends and students.

ALPHA OMEGA ALPHA, a non-secret, national, honorary medical society, was organized at the University of Illinois College of Medicine, Chicago, August 25, 1902. It is the only order of its kind in medical schools in the United States. There are forty-one active chapters and a charter is granted only to those institutions attaining such rank as approved by its headquarters.

It elects to membership each year students in their third and fourth years, who are outstanding in scholarship and character.

Alpha Omega Alpha

Phi Delta Epsilon Medical Fraternity

PHI DELTA EPSILON medical fraternity was founded nationally in 1904 and now consists of forty-nine chapters. Phi Chapter was established at the University of Louisville in 1916.

Among the chapter's successful endeavors this past year was the presentation of Dr. Hans Selye, noted endocrinologist, as its 1952 Samuel Gross Memorial lecturer. The chapter also conducted informative and stimulating scientific seminars for its members and pledges.

School of Music

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC of the University of Louisville, founded in 1932, is one of ten schools that make up the oldest municipal university in this country.

In March, 1947, in its fifteenth year, the School of Music acquired the estate, Gardencourt, a gift of members of the Norton family of Louisville, making it one of the most beautifully housed schools in this country. Two buildings are set in fourteen acres of formal lawns and gardens and natural woods on the edge of Cherokee Park.

Preparatory and non-credit departments are maintained. Students of any age and of any advancement may enroll in these departments at any time. All Applied Music subjects are open to preparatory and non-credit students. The collegiate department offers four degrees, Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Music Education, Master of Music and Master of Music Education.

DEAN DWIGHT ANDERSON

Doctor Dwight Anderson has been Dean of the School of Music since 1937. He is also the head of the piano department and is considered one of the most outstanding piano teachers in the South. He studied with Frederick Schailer Evans at the Cincinnati Conservatory and did graduate work in New York and Paris. In 1941, the Cincinnati Conservatory conferred upon him an honorary doctorate degree. Among his many other duties, Dr. Anderson has found the time to be music editor of the Courier-Journal since 1944.

Music School Chorus

The Music School Chorus appears in an annual traditional Christmas program and performs one major choral work in the Contemporary Festival held in May. Excellence in performance is secondary with this group. Its primary goal is to become acquainted with choral works from all periods of music history.

School of Music

The School of Music has a student body that includes boys and girls from the age of six to men and women of maturity. Students in the collegiate department are preparing for professional careers. Others are working in music as a part of a general education.

Brought together by a common interest in music, the students enjoy many a friendly moment together in between-class time. Besides listening to records and comparing class notes, they also play ping-pong or spend a relaxing moment enjoying the lovely scenery of Gardencourt.

Speed Scientific School

SPEED SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL at the University of Louisville which is a monument to William S. Speed and his sister, the late Mrs. Frederick M. Sackett, was a result of their desire for an engineering school located in Louisville, Kentucky. The school, today, offers degrees in Chemical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering and Civil Engineering. Recently, the Civil Engineering Department has added to its curriculum studies in architectural engineering.

(lower right) James Kaltenthaler, a Mechanical Engineering co-op student, plans equipment layout on a scale model layout of a plant now nearing completion.

Co-operative Work Program

The Speed Scientific School is a five year engineering school with a co-operative work program. This is similar to the systems used successfully by several other leading engineering schools.

Under the co-operative system each student receives, in addition to his academic work, actual experience as a regular employee in industry. It is during the student's third and fourth years that he alternates his academic work with "co-operative" or industrial work experience. Under the five year plan in engineering education, there are four quarters of co-operative work required by the engineering school for graduation.

Speed School Student Council

The purpose of the Speed School Student Council is to further the general welfare of the Speed Scientific School and of the University at large, to regulate student affairs, and to be the official representative of the student body in matters of mutual interest to the faculty and administration and the student body.

One of the main projects of the Council is the sponsorship of Engineers' Day when open house is held by Speed School to acquaint the public with its academic and research program. Tours through the buildings, scientific demonstrations and free radiograms via the ham club are just a few highlights. The following evening the Engineers' Ball is held, at which time the Engineer's Queen is crowned.

DO YOU KNOW . . .

- ★ The University of Louisville is composed of ten schools, each fully accredited by its respective regional and national agency.
- ★ It has the only schools of dentistry, medicine and graduate social work in the State of Kentucky.
- ★ It is one of the sponsoring universities of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies located at Oak Ridge, Tenn.
- ★ In the College of Arts and Sciences approximately 75% of the students are from Louisville and Jefferson County.
- ★ More than 4,000 students enrolled in classes offered by the Division of Adult Education last year.
- ★ Graduate School enrollment has shown a gain of more than 100% in the last 2 years, an indication of the growing prestige of the University.
- ★ The University spends over four million dollars annually, ninety per cent of which is paid to local individuals and concerns.
- ★ In the School of Music the Collegiate Department trains students for professional careers as artists and teachers; the Preparatory Department is for beginners of every age.
- ★ Twelve of the graduates of the School of Medicine have been chosen as president of the American Medical Association. Only one of the nation's medical schools has surpassed this record.
- ★ The School of Law, founded in 1846, is the second oldest law school in the South.
- ★ Students attending classes of the University range in age from 16 to 80.
- ★ The Ford Foundation made a grant of $90,000.00 to the University of Louisville for scholarships to be awarded on a two year basis to selected students who have completed three years of high school.
- ★ More than ninety per cent of the practicing dentists in Kentucky are graduates of the School of Dentistry.
- ★ The Air Force Officers' Training Corps at the University of Louisville is one of more than a hundred senior AFROTC units in the leading educational institutions in the United States.
- ★ Nearly one-half of Louisville's lawyers are alumni of the School of Law.
- ★ The University of Louisville is one of fifty-two honor colleges and universities where the Department of the Navy maintains a unit of the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps.
- ★ The Ford Foundation has recently granted the University $145,000 to conduct an experimental teacher training program.
- ★ The Speed Scientific School is one of seven engineering schools in the South which offers a five year program based upon both classroom instruction and job training in industry.

We Sell Your Property Profitably!

No property is too large — or too small — to have the specialized, professional services of our entire sales staff. We are equally as aggressive and successful in the sale of older property as we are in the promotion and sale of new subdivision property. We get results.
